

Evil Twin Saturday

Capo 4

Hey Trish, how ya been?
I hear you had to kill your sister's boyfriend
Behind the wood shed.
I know just how you feel
Unappreciated
Did you see her on the Jerry Springer Show?
She's lost weight

On Evil Twin Saturdays
We gather down at Sammy's
No one understands
But one who's been there too
That we are helpful
We have feelings
We do the things that good twins ought to do
Yeah, we're the good guys

And yeah, 'bout my brother
He had that accident we planned today
He's getting lots of sleep
He has no insomnia now
It's so peaceful
Don't worry about his bar exam
Got him a Doctor's note

On Evil Twin Saturdays
We gather down at Sammy's
No one understands
But one who's been there too
That we are helpful
We have feelings
We do the things that good twins ought to do
Yeah, we're the good guys

Hey Trish, did you hear about Franny?
Her twin's kids thought that they would get no
Christmas
So she offed their Granny
Old people can be so expensive
It's the med bills
The kids will have a holiday now
Merry Christmas!

On Evil Twin Saturdays
We gather down at Sammy's
No one understands
But one who's been there too
That we are helpful
We have feelings
We do the things that good twins ought to do
Yeah, we're the good guys
