

Ode to the Twinkie

Twinkies are the sponge cake that most everybody eats
Without Twinkies many people say their lives are incomplete Others say they're alien chemical warfare and will never pass their lips
I'm writing this for you my dears, and here's my Twinkie tips

Twinkies are favorites with children
So don't dis them 'til you think of all their uses
I found a book while at the store
For training children, pets and more
It says to train them with rewards - so no excuses

Twinkies are good for refineries
They take out the bran and leave all of the starches
They taste much better made that way
They give refinery men their pay
And we'll keep eating them so save your protest marches

Oh, nothing's like a Twinkie, a golden tender Twinkie
A sweet, enticing Twinkie to inspire the human race
You know, there's nothing like a Twinkie, a golden,
tender Twinkie
To put that smile you lost back on your face

Twinkies are not loved by nutritionists
They will tell you that their calories are empty
Well I would like to argue that Because I know that there is fat
And without it would never be as tempting

A Twinkie is a tasty co-conspirator
A Twinkie will befriend a man for life
A Twinkie tastes like custard when it's deep fried
A Twinkie will bring peace from worldly strife

You can rely on a Twinkie
When best friends fail and great romances falter
You'll find one underneath your couch
And when you pull it from its pouch
The Twinkie's just the same it never alters

Oh, nothing's like a Twinkie, a golden tender Twinkie
A sweet, enticing Twinkie to inspire the human race
You know, there's nothing like a Twinkie, a golden,
tender Twinkie
To put that smile you lost back on your face

A Twinkie can be very soothing
If you eat one when you're mad it will be calming
You will confront the human race
With a big grin upon your face
And when you die you'll save expenses on embalming

A Twinkie's unique and enduring
If you feed it to a pigeon it won't eat it
But when the atom bomb comes down
You'll want to have a few around
Because when all the food is gone you'll really need it

Oh, nothing's like a Twinkie, a golden tender Twinkie
A sweet, enticing Twinkie to inspire the human race
You know, there's nothing like a Twinkie, a golden,
tender Twinkie
To put that smile you lost back on your face

And put you in a state of Twinkie grace
That's a Twinkie
